

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

SAMUEL C. RANDAZZO

General Counsel, Industrial Energy Users-Ohio

Member, McNeese Wallace & Nurick LLC

21 East State Street, 17th Floor, Columbus, Ohio 43215-4228

(614) 719-2840 (Direct Dial) / (614) 469-4653 (Fax) / sam@mwncmh.com (Email)

---

Sam Randazzo is a Member in the law firm of McNeese Wallace & Nurick LLC (“MWN”) and serves as the Member-in-Charge of MWN’s office located in Columbus, Ohio. Sam’s work on public utility issues spans five decades. Sam graduated from the University of Akron (Business) in 1971 and received his law degree from Capital University Law School in 1975.

Sam entered private practice in 1977, where he has worked on behalf of a broad range of client interests including industrial, commercial, municipal and residential users of communications, water, natural gas, electricity and other regulated services. His experience includes: developing Ohio’s innovative self-help natural gas program in 1973; implementation of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 in Ohio; proactive leadership (spanning five decades) on Ohio utility legislation; acting as General Counsel to the Industrial Energy Users-Ohio (“IEU-Ohio”); counsel to the Coalition of Midwest Transmission Customers (“CMTC”); and serving on the Midwest ISO Advisory Committee. Sam has also been an active participant in consumer education activities through his work for IEU-Ohio (<http://www.ieu-ohio.org>), CMTC, the Manufacturers’ Education Council and the Ohio Energy Project (“Kids Teaching Kids”).